Dear Wilfred,

PRIME MINISTER'S SEMINAR ON BROADCASTING

I wanted to pass on the Prime Minister's thanks to you and everyone else who contributed to the excellent and very substantial briefing provided to her for the seminar on broadcasting. It must have been a major exercise not only to write but also to type and (no doubt) to re-type!

All the effort was well repaid by a very interesting occasion and the thoroughness with which the Prime Minister had been briefed certainly showed through.

Yours ever

David.
