

PRIME MINISTER'S SEMINAR ON BROADCASTING

MONDAY 21 SEPTEMBER 1987

Mr. Tim Bevan

Independent Film Producer
operating in partnership with Sarah Radclyffe from their company Working Title. From Pop Promo Beginnings he has produced the much acclaimed My Beautiful Launderette and more recently Personal Services

Mr. Andy Birchall

*Premiere Film Channel
B&B.*

Formerly Chief Executive, Premiere. (Low powered satellite film service aimed at cable systems in the UK). Appointment recently announced as head of 'Screen', British Satellite Broadcasting's proposed film channel.

Mr. John Birt

Deputy Director General, BBC. Previously Director of Programmes, London Weekend Television (1982-87). Earlier career entirely in ITV.

Mr. William Brown, CBE

Deputy Chairman (since 1974) and Managing Director (since 1966) Scottish Television. ITCA Chairman (1978-80), Member of Channel 4 Board (1980-84)

Mr. Michael Darlow

← Head of Negotiations, Independent Access Steering Committee. (This Committee was set up by the independent producers to act on behalf of the Independent Programme Producers Association, British Film and Television Producers Association and the Association of Independent Producers to negotiate terms of trade with ITV and BBC following the Government's 25 per cent initiative.) Formerly head of the '25 per cent Campaign'. Previously worked as producer, director and executive producer with Granada, BBC and Thames.

Revised Content

James Gordon, CBE

Managing Director, Radio Clyde plc. Political Editor Scottish TV (1965-73). Member Scottish Development Agency; Chairman Scottish Exhibition Centre.

Mr. Michael Grade

Director of Programmes, Television, BBC. Came to BBC in 1984. Earlier career in ITV - last as Director of Programmes, London Weekend Television; as a theatrical agent; and a television executive in California.

✓ Mr. David Graham

Executive Producer, Diverse Production Limited and joint Managing Director. Member of the Council of IPPA (Independent Programme Producers Association). Early career with BBC, and was Deputy Editor of The Money Programme. Independent Producer.

Mr. Michael Green

11 digital speech channels

Chairman, Carlton Communications plc. Carlton Communications has a wide range of interests in the media and communications field, including in independent production and facilities provision. A partner in one of the unsuccessful applicants for the DBS contract. Chairman, Open College.

Mr. Graham Grist

*DBS - 5
21st Sept 1985 - in 2 year time.
Growth rate 1985 Sub-channel*

Since 1986 Finance Director British Satellite Broadcasting (BSB). BSB hold the IBA's contract to mount a three channel Direct Broadcasting by Satellite which it hopes to start in 1989. Previous career outside the broadcasting field.

Mr. John Holt

Managing Director, Space and Communications Division, British Aerospace plc.

Mr. Richard Hooper

Managing Director, Super Channel. (A low powered satellite service primarily aimed at European audience - jointly owned by ITV companies, except Thames, and Virgin.) Formerly with BT.

Mr. Jeremy Isaacs

Chief Executive, Channel Four Television since 1981. Leaving for Royal Opera House in Spring 1988. Earlier career mainly in ITV. Director of Programmes, Thames Television (1974-78). Also worked with BBC (Panorama 1965). Produced the World at War (1974) - Ireland, a Television History.

Mr. John Jackson

A lawyer (called to the Bar but not practised) whose early career was with Philips UK of which he became a Board Member. He is a Director of many companies including the Ladbroke Group, Cambridge Electronic Industries, Central Independent Television, Sky Channel, TSI/Molinaire and Celltech which is a British bio-technology venture originally launched by the Government. He is also a Council Member of the British Technology Group. He is also a Director of Cabletel (75 per cent owned by Ladbroke) which has the Ealing cable franchise. Played a leading part in Direct Broadcasting Limited which formed an unsuccessful bid for the UK DBS franchise.

Mr. R. W. Johnson

Marketing Services Director, Procter and Gamble. Senior figure in Incorporated Society of British Advertisers (ISBA).

Mr. Charles Jonscher

Vice President, Booz Allen & Hamilton International (UK) Limited. This company recently took over CSP International which undertook the subscription consultancy for the Home Office, and the study of spectrum allocation for the DTI. An economist who has specialised in broadcasting.

Mr. David McCall

Chief Executive, Anglia Television Limited. (A Non-Network Company.) Chairman Independent Television Companies Association (ITCA). Accountant. Member of Channel 4 Board (1981-85)

Retained

Mr. Nicolas Mellersh ✓

Director, Cable Television Association. Formerly Director of TEN, a low powered satellite service.

Mr. David Nicholas, CBE

Editor and Chief Executive, Independent Television News Limited since 1977. After career as press journalist (Yorkshire Post, Daily Telegraph, Observer), joined ITN in 1960.

Professor Sir Alan Peacock, DSC

Chairman of Committee on Financing the BBC. Research Professor at Heriot-Watt University. Chairman of Scottish Arts Council. Formerly Vice Chancellor, University of Buckingham. Chief Economic Adviser DTI (1973-76).

Mr. Richard Price

*22^h 26
of Levy.*

LWT.

Entrepreneur active in international film and television production and distribution. Director of Richard Price Television Associates, London Weekend Television International Limited, Primetime Television Limited, Primetime Entertainment Inc (USA). Former Head of International Sales at Granada.

Sir Ian Trethowan

Chairman, Thames Television plc (one of the big five Network Companies). Chairman, Horserace Betting Levy Board since 1982. Formerly BBC Director General (1977-82)

Mr. David Wheeler

Director General of the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising (which represents interests of advertising agencies). Formerly Media Director of J. Walter Thompson (1969-77), Managing Director of Television Audience Measurement (1961-69) and Marketing Director of Fison Pharmaceuticals (1957-61)

Mr. John Whitney

Director General, Independent Broadcasting Authority. Previously independent producer (e.g. Upstairs Downstairs); formerly Managing Director Capital Radio (1973-82). Member of National Theatre Board (1982-)

FIVE

DGRCFW

PRIME MINISTER'S SEMINAR ON BROADCASTING

MONDAY 21 SEPTEMBER 1987

Mr. Tim Bevan

Independent Film Producer operating in partnership with Sarah Radclyffe from their company Working Title. From Pop Promo Beginnings he has produced the much acclaimed My Beautiful Launderette and more recently Personal Services

Mr. Andy Birchall

Formerly Chief Executive, Premiere. (Low powered satellite film service aimed at cable systems in the UK). Appointment recently announced as head of 'Screen', British Satellite Broadcasting's proposed film channel.

Mr. John Birt

Deputy Director General, BBC. Previously Director of Programmes, London Weekend Television (1982-87). Earlier career entirely in ITV.

Mr. William Brown, CBE

Deputy Chairman (since 1974) and Managing Director (since 1966) Scottish Television. ITCA Chairman (1978-80), Member of Channel 4 Board (1980-84)

Mr. Michael Darlow

Head of Negotiations, Independent Access Steering Committee. (This Committee was set up by the independent producers to act on behalf of the Independent Programme Producers Association, British Film and Television Producers Association and the Association of Independent Producers to negotiate terms of trade with ITV and BBC following the Government's 25 per cent initiative.) Formerly head of the '25 per cent Campaign'. Previously worked as producer, director and executive producer with Granada, BBC and Thames.

- Mr. James Gordon, CBE
Managing Director, Radio Clyde plc. Political Editor Scottish TV (1965-73). Member Scottish Development Agency; Chairman Scottish Exhibition Centre.
- Mr. Michael Grade
Director of Programmes, Television, BBC. Came to BBC in 1984. Earlier career in ITV - last as Director of Programmes, London Weekend Television; as a theatrical agent; and a television executive in California.
- Mr. David Graham
Executive Producer, Diverse Production Limited and joint Managing Director. Member of the Council of IPPA (Independent Programme Producers Association). Early career with BBC, and was Deputy Editor of The Money Programme. Independent Producer.
- Mr. Michael Green
Chairman, Carlton Communications plc. Carlton Communications has a wide range of interests in the media and communications field, including in independent production and facilities provision. A partner in one of the unsuccessful applicants for the DBS contract. Chairman, Open College.
- Mr. Graham Grist
Since 1986 Finance Director British Satellite Broadcasting (BSB). BSB hold the IBA's contract to mount a three channel Direct Broadcasting by Satellite which it hopes to start in 1989. Previous career outside the broadcasting field.
- Mr. John Holt
Managing Director, Space and Communications Division, British Aerospace plc.
- Mr. Richard Hooper
Managing Director, Super Channel. (A low powered satellite service primarily aimed at European audience - jointly owned by ITV companies, except Thames, and Virgin.) Formerly with BT.

Mr. Jeremy Isaacs

Chief Executive, Channel Four Television since 1981. Leaving for Royal Opera House in Spring 1988. Earlier career mainly in ITV. Director of Programmes, Thames Television (1974-78). Also worked with BBC (Panorama 1965). Produced the World at War (1974) - Ireland, a Television History.

Mr. John Jackson

A lawyer (called to the Bar but not practised) whose early career was with Philips UK of which he became a Board Member. He is a Director of many companies including the Ladbroke Group, Cambridge Electronic Industries, Central Independent Television, Sky Channel, TSI/Molinaire and Celltech which is a British bio-technology venture originally launched by the Government. He is also a Council Member of the British Technology Group. He is also a Director of Cabletel (75 per cent owned by Ladbroke) which has the Ealing cable franchise. Played a leading part in Direct Broadcasting Limited which formed an unsuccessful bid for the UK DBS franchise.

Mr. R. W. Johnson

Marketing Services Director, Procter and Gamble. Senior figure in Incorporated Society of British Advertisers (ISBA).

Mr. Charles Jonscher

Vice President, Booz Allen & Hamilton International (UK) Limited. This company recently took over CSP International which undertook the subscription consultancy for the Home Office, and the study of spectrum allocation for the DTI. An economist who has specialised in broadcasting.

Mr. David McCall

Chief Executive, Anglia Television Limited. (A Non-Network Company.) Chairman Independent Television Companies Association (ITCA). Accountant. Member of Channel 4 Board (1981-85)

- Mr. Nicolas Mellersh
Director, Cable Television Association. Formerly Director of TEN, a low powered satellite service.
- Mr. David Nicholas, CBE
Editor and Chief Executive, Independent Television News Limited since 1977. After career as press journalist (Yorkshire Post, Daily Telegraph, Observer), joined ITN in 1960.
- Professor Sir Alan Peacock, DSC
Chairman of Committee on Financing the BBC. Research Professor at Heriot-Watt University. Chairman of Scottish Arts Council. Formerly Vice Chancellor, University of Buckingham. Chief Economic Adviser DTI (1973-76).
- Mr. Richard Price
Entrepreneur active in international film and television production and distribution. Director of Richard Price Television Associates, London Weekend Television International Limited, Primetime Television Limited, Primetime Entertainment Inc (USA). Former Head of International Sales at Granada.
- Sir Ian Trethowan
Chairman, Thames Television plc (one of the big five Network Companies). Chairman, Horserace Betting Levy Board since 1982. Formerly BBC Director General (1977-82)
- Mr. David Wheeler
Director General of the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising (which represents interests of advertising agencies). Formerly Media Director of J. Walter Thompson (1969-77), Managing Director of Television Audience Measurement (1961-69) and Marketing Director of Fison Pharmaceuticals (1957-61)
- Mr. John Whitney
Director General, Independent Broadcasting Authority. Previously independent producer (e.g. Upstairs Downstairs); formerly Managing Director Capital Radio (1973-82). Member of National Theatre Board (1982-)