

PRIME MINISTER

ECONOMIC SUMMIT, TORONTO

You have agreed to travel to Toronto for the Economic Summit on Saturday 18 June. But you also have to address the Welsh Conference that day.

What we plan is that the VC10 would pick up the main delegation at Heathrow and fly to Manchester (the nearest airfield to Llandudno where it can land). You would helicopter at 1420 from Llandudno to Manchester - a flight of 35 minutes - and join the aircraft there. Departure for Toronto would be at 1500 with arrival at 1755 (local 2255 UK time).

I It may be easier to spede at a dinner in Wales
on the Friday evening and return straight to London on the Saturday morning.
Can we look at the diary.
